Healing Prayers and Eucharistic Adoration

A Public Service of Healing

This service is suitable for use in a congregation or other church setting. It may also be adapted as needed for use in a variety of settings, e.g., hospital, nursing home, or other health care facility. When unction is administered in the context of the Sunday Eucharist or a regular weekday Eucharist, the portion of this service entitled "Laying on of Hands and Anointing" is used. It is recommended that this take place immediately before the exchange of the Peace.

The Word of God

The service may begin as appointed for a celebration of the Holy Eucharist, or with the Penitential Order, or with the following greeting

Minister The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Minister Let us pray.

After a period of silence, the Minister then says one of the following Collects, or some other appropriate Collect

Loving God, the comfort of all who sorrow, the strength of all who suffer: accept our prayers, and to those who seek healing [especially N. and N., and all whom we name in our hearts], grant the power of your grace, that the weak may be strengthened, sickness turned to health, the dying made whole, and sorrow turned into joy; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

or this

God our healer, whose mercy is like a refining fire: by the lovingkindness of Jesus, heal us and those for whom we pray; that being renewed by you, we may witness your wholeness to our broken world; through Jesus Christ, in the power of the Spirit. Amen.

or this

Gracious God, we commend to your loving care all who suffer, especially those who come [here] seeking your healing grace [for themselves or others]. Give them patience and hope in their distress; strengthen and uphold them in mind and body; and grant, by your intervention, that all your people may be made whole according to your desire, through Jesus Christ, in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Response to the Word

A homily or silence may follow the Gospel.

A LITANY OF HEALING

All remain standing.

The Celebrant introduces the Litany with this bidding

Let us name before God those for whom we offer our prayers.

The People audibly name those for whom they are interceding.

A Person appointed then leads the Litany

God the Father, your will for all people is health and salvation;

We praise you and thank you, O Lord.

God the Son, you came that we might have life, and might have it more abundantly;

We praise you and thank you, O Lord.

God the Holy Spirit, you make our bodies the temple of your presence;

We praise you and thank you, O Lord.

Holy Trinity, one God, in you we live and move and have our being;

We praise you and thank you, O Lord.

Lord, grant your healing grace to all who are sick, injured, or disabled, that they may be made whole;

Hear us, O Lord of life.

Grant to all who seek your guidance, and to all who are lonely, anxious, or despondent, a knowledge of your will and an awareness of your presence;

Hear us, O Lord of life.

Mend broken relationships, and restore those in emotional distress to soundness of mind and serenity of spirit;

Hear us, O Lord of life.

Bless physicians, nurses, and all others who minister to the suffering, granting them wisdom and skill, sympathy and patience;

Hear us, O Lord of life.

Grant to the dying peace and a holy death, and uphold by the grace and consolation of your Holy Spirit those who are bereaved;

Hear us, O Lord of life.

Restore to wholeness whatever is broken by human sin, in our lives, in our nation, and in the world;

Hear us, O Lord of life.

You are the Lord who does wonders:

You have declared your power among the peoples.

With you, O Lord, is the well of life:

And in your light we see light.

Hear us, O Lord of life:

Heal us, and make us whole.

Let us pray.

A period of silence follows.

The Celebrant concludes the Prayers with one of the following or some other suitable Collect.

Almighty God, giver of life and health: Send your blessing on all who are sick, and upon those who minister to them, that all weakness may be vanquished by the triumph of the risen Christ; who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

or this

Gracious God, we give you thanks for your beloved Jesus Christ, in whom you have shared the beauty and pain of human life. Look with compassion upon all for whom we pray, and strengthen us to be your instruments of healing in the world, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

or this

Open us to your healing power, O God. We entrust ourselves to your care, knowing that you are doing for us and for all the world far better things than we can ask or imagine. With you as our companion and guide, strengthen us to hope for all that is good, and to fear no evil. For your love is stronger than death, and your faithfulness reaches to the heavens; and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and to the ages of ages. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Deacon or Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Minister and People

*Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.*

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

THE PEACE

All stand.

Celebrant	The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People	And also with you.

LITANY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

When one has access to a church or chapel where the Sacrament is reserved, it is a good thing to make a point of stopping from time to time to pray in the presence of the Sacrament. God's presence fills the whole earth, and Jesus' promise to be with us always transcends even the grace of the Sacraments, but most of us find that a focus on the Blessed Sacrament may be a helpful reminder. Time spent in contemplation of the Presence will leave one more ready to recognize the hand of God in all places and the image of God in all people. Intercessory prayer, in particular, takes on a special light as we pray for the dispersed Body of Christ in his Church in the immediate presence of the concentrated Body of Christ in the Sacrament.

The priest places the Blessed Sacrament on the Altar and then begins the Litany.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

O Christ, hear us.

O Christ, graciously hear us.

God the Father,
have mercy on us.

God the Son,
have mercy on us.

God the Holy Spirit,
have mercy on us.

Holy Trinity, One God,
have mercy on us.

Blessed Jesus, Word of God Incarnate,
I worship you.

Blessed Jesus, Son of God and Son of Mary,
I worship you.

Jesus, whom the heavens cannot contain, yet present on the Altar,
I worship you.

Jesus, adored by the heavenly hosts, yet ready to hear our prayers,
I worship you.

Jesus, veiling your glory that we may come close to you,
I worship you.

Jesus, both priest and sacrifice,
I worship you.

Living Bread, that whoever eats will live forever,
evermore give us this bread.

Jesus, manna in the wilderness,
evermore give us this bread.

Jesus, broken bread that feeds the multitude,
evermore give us this bread.

Jesus, bread that comes down out of heaven,
evermore give us this bread.

Jesus, bread that gives life to the world,
evermore give us this bread.

Jesus, the good shepherd, who laid down your life for your sheep,
evermore give us this bread.

Jesus, giving your own Body and Blood to be our food,
evermore give us this bread.

Jesus, revealed in the breaking of the bread,
evermore give us this bread.

From measuring your omnipotence and grace by our weak understanding,
save us and help us.

From doubts, distractions, and irreverence,
save us and help us.

From unworthy and unfruitful receiving,
save us and help us.

From hardness of heart and ingratitude,
save us and help us.

From all lack of charity and refusing to welcome others as you have welcomed us,
save us and help us.

Hear us, Lord, and grant that we may know your presence,
hear us, Lord.

That we may acknowledge our dependence on you,
hear us, Lord.

That we may seek to know and do your will,
hear us, Lord.

That we may recognize and give thanks for every blessing you give us,
hear us, Lord.

That we may come to you in repentance for the wrongs we have done,
hear us, Lord.

That we may approach this ineffable mystery in perfect charity with all,
hear us, Lord.

That we may be made ready to lead a new life,
hear us, Lord.

That we may walk in the way of your commandments,
hear us, Lord.

That receiving this great gift we may grow in gratitude and trust,
hear us, Lord.

That the wounded may find healing, the despondent, hope, and the fearful, courage,
hear us, Lord.

That we may see your image in one another,
hear us, Lord.

That as we adore you here, we may hereafter be ready to stand in your presence,
hear us, Lord.

Jesus, Lamb of God,
have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sins,
have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer of the world,
grant us your peace.

Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
